College Series of Greek Authors

This series of works from Greek literature, with introductions and commentaries adapted for use in college classes, has received gratifying approval. In no other series is the average of editorial scholarship higher or the editorial work more truly helpful. The volumes are in uniform binding, Porson type of a large size is used throughout for the text, and the introductions and commentaries provide every reasonable assistance in a simple and direct way. Notes are placed beneath the text at the foot of each page.
